

Progress Check 1: Music

Grammar: Present simple and past simple

PRESENT SIMPLE	PAST SIMPLE
Verwendung: ... für Handlungen in der Gegenwart Achtung: ... he/she/it – das „s“ geht mit! (e.g. he walks)	Verwendung: ... für Handlungen in der Vergangenheit Achtung: ... unregelmäßige Bildung bei den irregular verbs!

Task 1: Fill in the correct tense.

Read the story about Olivia's first concert and fill in present tense or past tense.

My first concert? Well, that was really an adventure for me! It _____ (sein) last year.
 I _____ (bekommen) the tickets from my parents as a present for my 13th birthday. I _____ (dürfen) to go to the Lady Gaga concert with my best friend Josephine and her parents.
 You have to _____ (wissen) that I am Lady Gaga's biggest fan. I simply _____ (lieben) her music and I _____ (hören) to it every day.
 However, when I _____ (halten) the tickets for the concert in my hands I was so happy and excited! We _____ (gehen/fahren) to the concert by train and when we _____ (ankommen) I was surprised how many people there _____ (sein). They all _____ (wollen) to see and hear Lady Gaga live!
 The concert itself was great! She _____ (spielen) almost all her songs and the show _____ (enden) at half past eleven. Usually I _____ (nicht dürfen) to stay up so long and mum _____ (schicken) me to bed at ten o'clock. But that was a special day of course. After the concert I was very tired and I already _____ (einschlafen) in the car. When I was at home I directly _____ (gehen) to bed. I think I even _____ (träumen) about the concert and that I was Lady Gaga. How strange ... ☺. Still today I often _____ (denken) about this wonderful evening and about what a perfect and fascinating singer Lady Gaga _____ (sein).

20 points
(1 point each)